VICTORIA DIAMOND JUBILEE.

Appoinment of Committees to Carry Ont Celebration.

Harry Armitage called the executive committee on the Victoria Jubilee to order at the Hawaiian hotel last night. He asked the meeting to elect a chairman. Clive Davies was the only nominee and was elected by acclamation. Rudolph L. Auerbach and O. St. J. Gilbert were elected as joint secretaries.

There was a good deal of discussion on modes of procedure, both for deciding the features of the collaboration and the election of subordinate commit-The proposal to have fireworks was attacked without avail.

Mr. Roe fought hard to have an allegorical procession, with efficies of the good and great men of the Victorian age. But he wanted $500 for the purpose and the menting left it to the sports com-

Mr. Reynolds introduced the permanent memorial question, but nobody else would say a word on it. The following committees were appointed on nomination of their respective chairmen after
